

BATTERSEA JAZZ FESTIVAL

3rd-13th JUNE 2026

LIMITED FREE TICKETS FOR WINSTANLEY NEIGHBOURHOOD RESIDENTS FOR THE FOLLOWING SHOWS, FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

Romeo and Juliet and Swing Wednesday 3rd June

The 2026 Battersea Jazz Festival will begin with a bang: A jazz ballet! The Hugo Jennings Big Band will perform original jazz arrangements based on the music of Sergei Prokofiev's Romeo and Juliet, accompanying dancers from Battersea's very own E33 Dance Company. Expect a night of swinging music, world-class dance, and storytelling in this interpretation of one of the most legendary ballets of the 20th Century

The Clapham Grand, 21-25 St John's Hill, SW11 1TT

Genevieve Namazzi Quartet Friday 5th June 8pm

Known amongst friends and fans as 'GENTET', the 'Genevieve Namazzi Quartet' consists of extraordinary London-based musicians who perform a mixture of original compositions and jazz standards. As a composer, Genevieve's influences are a blend of encounters from her life, cultural heritage, classical background, and have been described as 'uplifting', 'heartfelt' and 'groovy'.

St Mary's Battersea, SW11 3NA

Deschanel Gordon Trio Saturday 6th June, 3pm

Deschanel Gordon is one of the most pre-eminent young pianists on the London music scene and has made waves since winning BBC Young Jazz Musician in 2020. One of the brightest prospects of his generation, his music embodies swing, groove, and his Jamaican heritage.

St Mary's Battersea, SW11 3NA

The Dukes: The Music of Duke Ellington, Duke Pearson, and Duke Jordan

Saturday 6th June, 8pm

Pianist Hugo Jennings will be leading an all-star quintet in a programme celebrating three "Dukes": Duke Ellington, Duke Pearson, and Duke Jordan. The evening will feature some of the greatest compositions in jazz folklore, performed by some of the finest musicians in straight-ahead jazz today.

St Mary's Battersea, SW11 3NA

Scott Hamilton and Nat Steele "Afternoon in Paris" Sunday 7th June 7pm

The Battersea Jazz Festival is delighted to be welcoming a true living legend and one of the all-time great tenor saxophonists, Scott Hamilton, for an unforgettable evening celebrating the music of John Lewis, Milt Jackson, and the Modern Jazz Quartet. Alongside internationally renowned vibraphonist Nat Steele, the two will present music from their new album: "Afternoon in Paris: The Music of John Lewis and the MJQ".

St Mary's Battersea, SW11 3NA

LIMITED FREE TICKETS FOR WINSTANLEY NEIGHBOURHOOD RESIDENTS FOR THE SHOWS IN THIS DOCUMENT ONLY, FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

To claim your free ticket, you will need to scan the QR code or the link below and fill out the form.

<https://tinyurl.com/yduwc6h3>

